ART

Before the shelf runs empty, ART gets moving.

Low stock becomes the next order.
Your rules decide when you step in.

ART

Low stock. Next order, handled.

ART reorders within your limits.
Set the stock rules once. ART handles the next step.

ART

Stop chasing stock.

Manual checks. Late orders.
Avoidable shortages.
By the time someone notices, the shelf can already be empty.

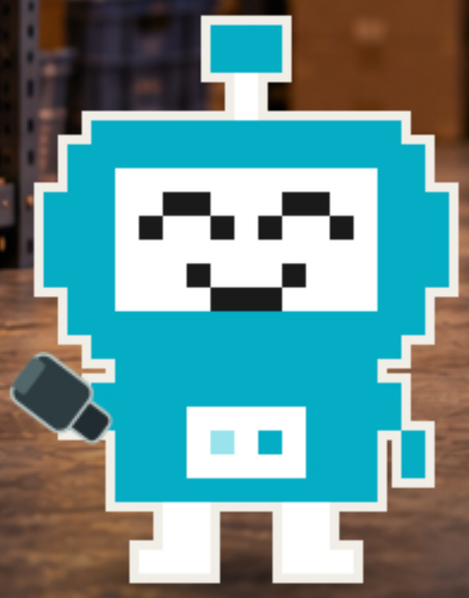

Still checking...

ART spots what's running low.

Your stock rules trigger the next step.
When stock hits your reorder point, ART starts the check.

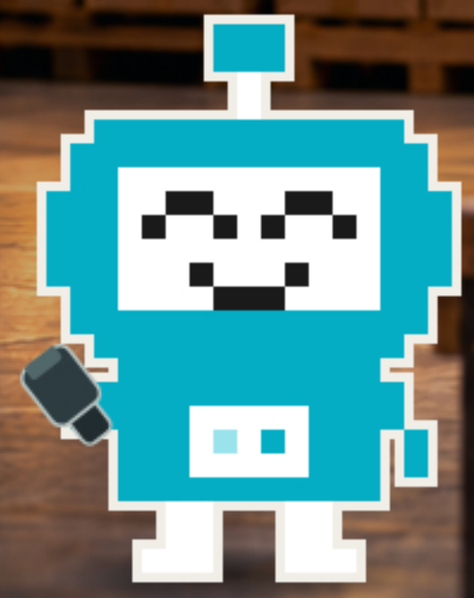

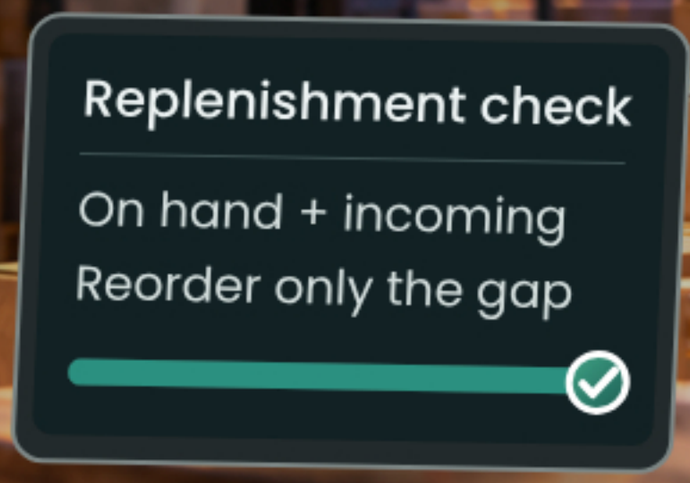

ART

Check first. Reorder what's needed.

ART checks stock and incoming orders.
What's already on the way helps shape the next order.

Your limit.
Two clear paths.

Example approval limit: ₹10,000

Within your amount limit

₹6,000

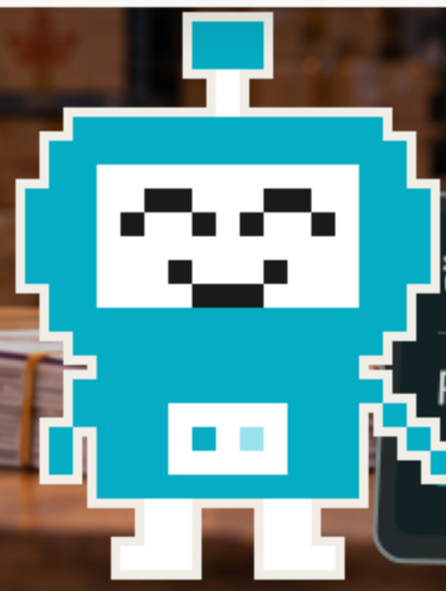

ART places the order.

Above your amount limit

₹15,000

ART sends it for approval.

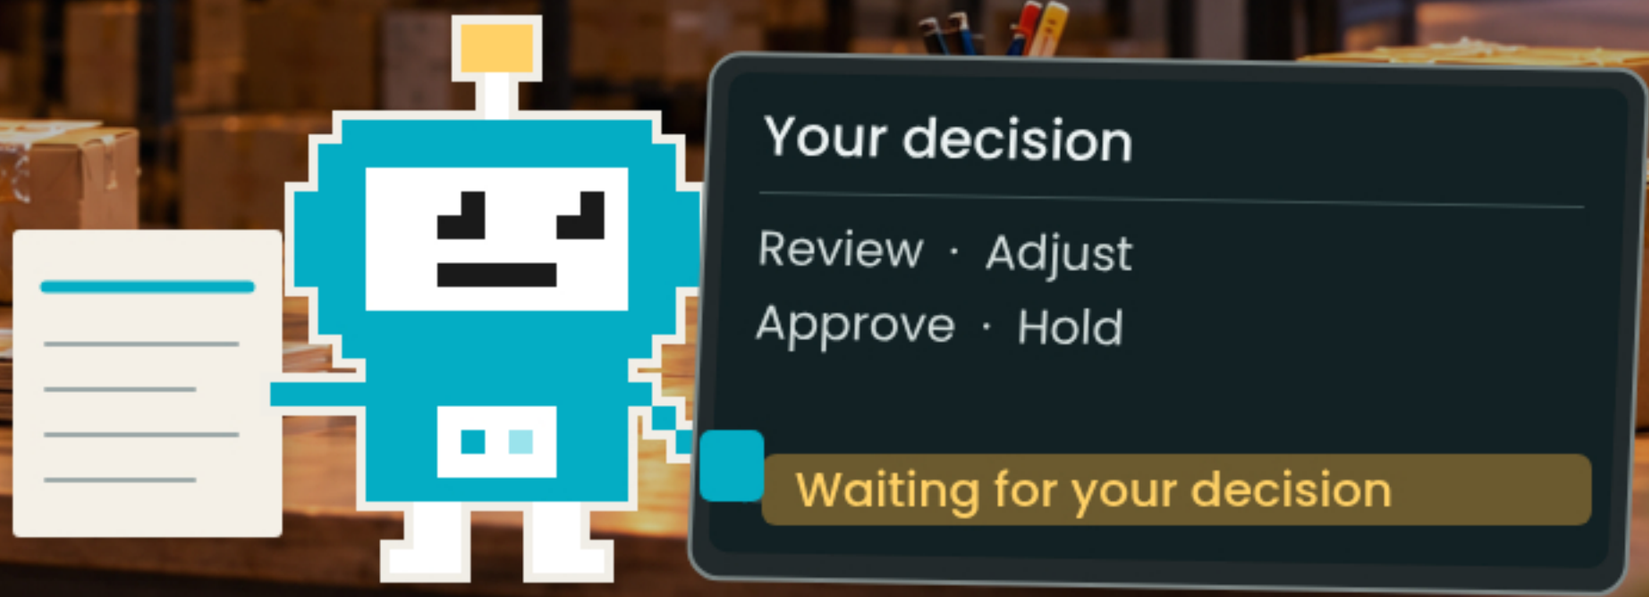

ART

An exception needs your call.

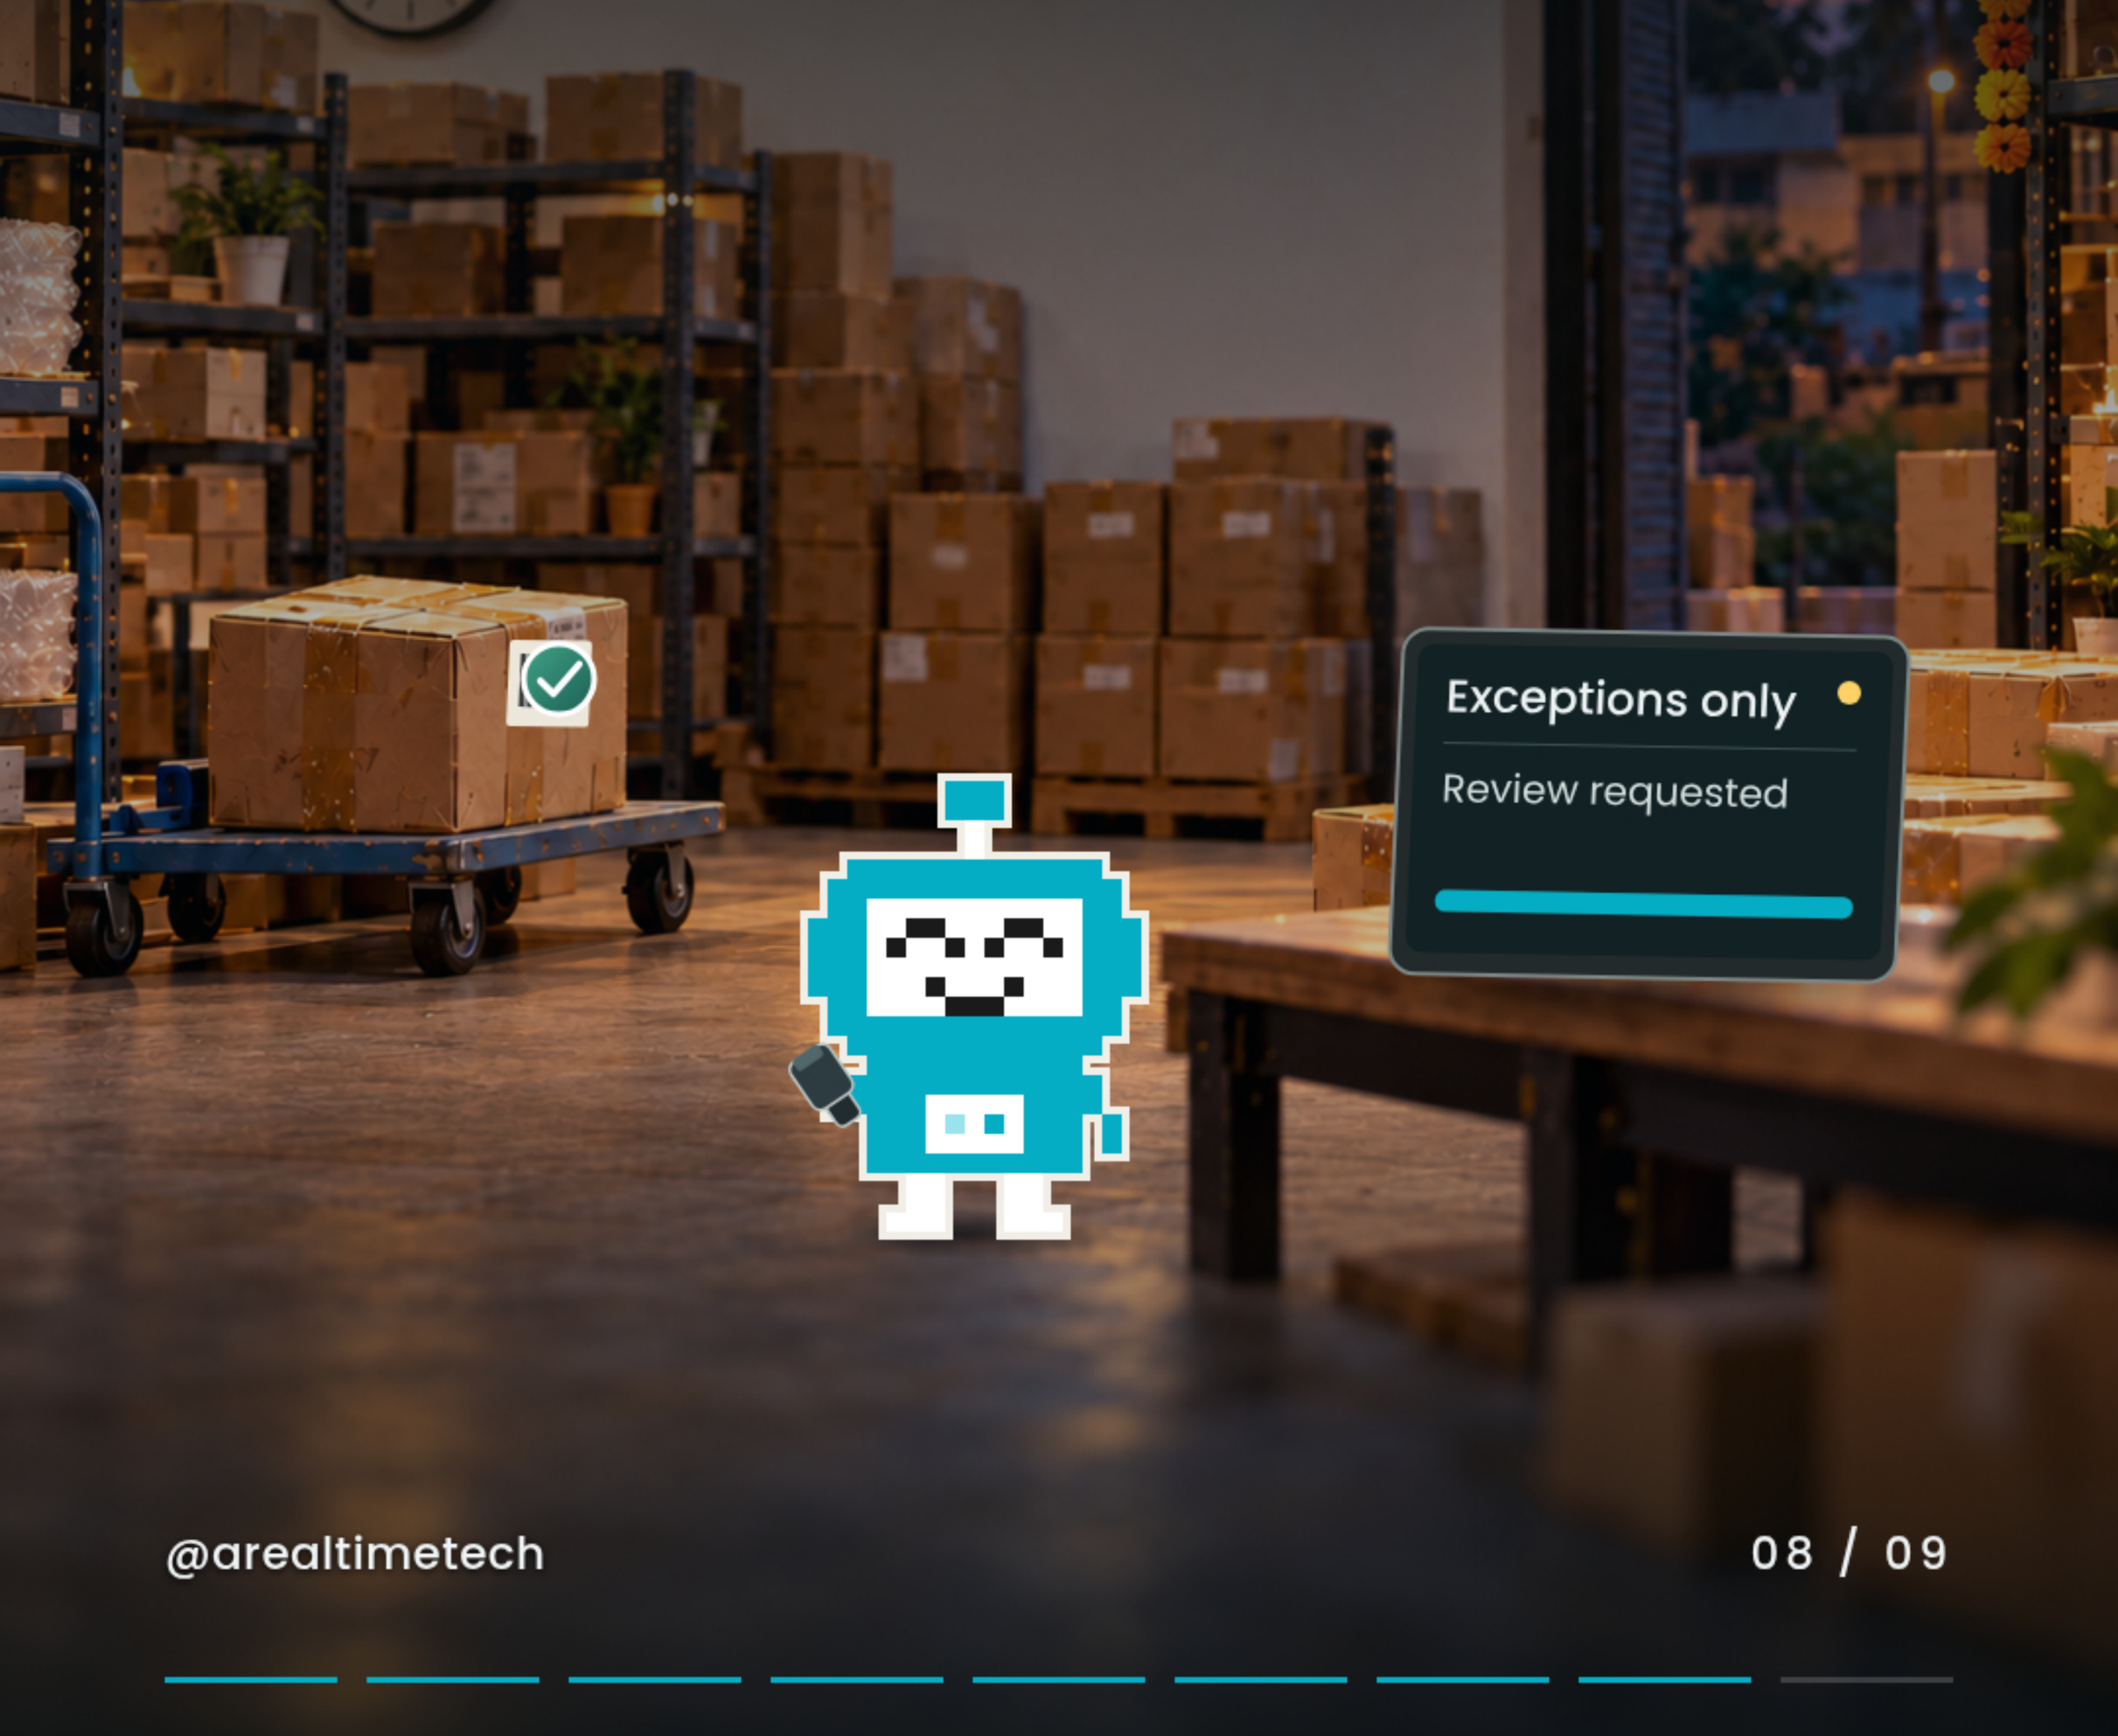

Review. Adjust. Approve or hold.
See the request and decide what happens next.

ART

Routine orders move.
Exceptions reach you.

Less chasing. Control where it counts.
Everyday replenishment keeps moving within your rules.

Set the rules. Let ART handle the routine.

Make stock replenishment flow.
Choose your reorder points and spending limits.
